Important things you should know:

- If you need food assistance you must go to the food bank in your town.
- If you do not have a food bank in your town, please contact your town office to find what food bank they support.
- Most food banks do not serve people outside of their service area and they are not obligated to do so.
- The food you are given at the food bank is to supplement your grocery needs and is not intended to supply all of your food needs.
- The food items available will change with each visit and you should not expect to always receive the same items.
